

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS STORAGE AGREEMENT

The Storage Agreements are entered into between Shurgard and the Private Customer for a minimum initial period of 1 month (subject to the 14 day right of withdrawal where the Private Customer purchases services from Shurgard online or over the phone as set out in Article 4.5 of these General Terms and Conditions). After that, the Storage Agreement will automatically renew for an indefinite duration. If the Private Customer does not consent to automatic renewal, the Private Customer must notify Shurgard of this by writing to us or by e-mail in accordance with article 3 of these General Terms and Conditions, giving a notice period of fifteen (15) days. Once the Storage Agreement automatically renews, the Private Customer has the right to terminate the Storage Agreement at all times, at no cost, by notifying Shurgard of this by writing to us or by e-mail in accordance with article 3 of these General Terms and Conditions and observing a notice period of fifteen 15 days.

Article 1. Scope and definition

These general terms and conditions of storage are applicable to all Self Storage agreements between a company of the Shurgard Group, hereinafter called 'Shurgard' on the one hand, and parties using storage space/units (or any other Shurgard storage product or service e.g. parking, bulk, lockers, etc.), hereinafter called 'the Customer' on the other hand. These general terms and conditions also apply to, and govern the use of, the Shurgard app (the "Mobile App") as described below. Where applicable in these General Terms and Conditions, a 'Private Customer' shall have the same meaning as a 'consumer' in the law, namely a natural person who is acting for purposes which are outside his trade, business, craft or profession.

The Shurgard store, the used storage space, product or service is called 'the Storage Unit' and the Self Storage agreement including these General Terms and Conditions is hereinafter called 'the Agreement'. All goods which are stored or placed anywhere in the Shurgard storage facility (including the storage unit) are referred to as 'the Goods'.

Article 2. Purpose and use

2.1 Shurgard grants Customer a right to occupy and use the Storage Unit in accordance with the terms of the Agreement for the sole purpose of storing permitted Goods. Customer may not use the Storage Unit for another purpose.

The Customer is granted a licence to use the Storage Unit (subject to the terms and conditions which follow) and nothing in this Agreement or in the relationship of Shurgard and the Customer shall be taken as creating a tenancy or the relationship of landlord and tenant. The Customer hereby acknowledges and expressly agrees that nothing in the Agreement shall be construed so as to create any legal or proprietary interest in the Storage Unit. Shurgard shall not for any purpose whatsoever act as a warehouse keeper, guardian or custodian of the Storage Unit or of the Goods.

By entering into the Agreement, Customer warrants having sole legal and beneficial title to the Goods and accepts any and all liability in connection with the Goods. The Customer shall be liable for and fully compensate Shurgard in relation to any claim or cost or any action or proceeding in connection with the Goods from any third party, including disputes in connection with the ownership or rights to possession.

2.2 Customer will use and maintain the Storage Unit with due care and in accordance with the permitted use and the Agreement. The Storage Unit must be kept locked and clean at all times. Trolleys are available for the convenience of our customers. After having used a trolley, the trolley must be returned to the trolley bay undamaged. Failure to do so will result in a penalty of 200 GPB billed on the customer's account. For your information, Shurgard energy consumption data and information relating to green building certificates and energy performance ratings are available on our website.

2.3 Customer confirms, having visited, inspected and accepted the Storage Unit in good condition, that it conforms with the legal and agreed use which the Customer expects to make of it. The Customer understands and accepts the safety and security level and regulations. With regard to the legal and agreed purpose and use / safety and security expectations, Shurgard explicitly provides no warranties and accepts no liability whatsoever.

2.4 Customer accepts that all indications of Storage Unit sizes are estimates and an average of a larger number of Storage Units. Any deviation between the actual size of a Storage Unit and the indicated size in the Agreement gives neither party any right or an entitlement to a price adjustment.

2bis.2 Use of the Mobile App is not mandatory, and the Customer is not under any obligation to use the Mobile App or create a Mobile App Account in order to benefit from the Storage Agreement, which remains unaffected.

2bis.3 Shurgard has the right to modify, add, or remove any feature of the Mobile App without prior notification to the Customer to reflect any changes to the Mobile App Services or changes needed to reflect changes in the law. For the sake of clarity, any such change to the Mobile App does not entail a change to any Storage Agreement in place, or a change to these General Terms, which remain subject to the rules set out under article 16.2.

2bis.4 In order to access the Mobile App, the Customer must agree to the current version of these General Terms.

Touchless Access

2bis.8 The Customer may be provided with specific codes to be shared with third party guest users to the extent and in accordance with the use authorized by Shurgard. The Customer understands and agrees in all cases that the Customer remains fully liable to Shurgard for the correct performance of the Storage Agreement even if any breach committed is attributable to such third party user.

Account Creation and Services

2bis.9 If Customer wishes to use the Mobile App Services, the Customer must create a Mobile App Account, it being agreed that only customers who have an existing Storage Agreement with Shurgard can create a Mobile App Account.

2bis.12 The Mobile App Services currently offered to the Customer having created a Mobile App Account are as follows:

- (i) the Customer can consult and pay Shurgard's invoices via the Mobile App as described in articles 4.11 and 4.12 below;

Disclaimer regarding the Mobile App

2bis.13 Subject to Article 8.6, the non-Private Customer acknowledges that the Mobile App has not been developed to meet the non-Private Customer's individual requirements and that it is therefore the non-Private Customer's responsibility to verify that the facilities and functions of the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services) meet its requirements as described on the app marketplace, Shurgard's website and/or in the body of these General Terms. Shurgard provides the Mobile App to non-Private Customers on an "as-is" basis and makes no representation or warranties of any kind, express or implied, including, without limitation, warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement or as regards the correct, error-free or uninterrupted operation of the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services). The non-Private Customer is also aware that the Mobile App, the Mobile App Services and/or the Mobile App's content are subject to change or termination without notice. To the full extent permissible by law, Shurgard furthermore disclaims, with respect to non-Private Customers only, all warranties, express or implied, with regard to the quality, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement of the content, products or the Mobile App Services contained on the Mobile App. Shurgard therefore assumes no responsibility or liability towards non-Private Customers as regards the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services), its availability nor the correctness of the data in the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services) and, any and all liability for direct or indirect damages of Shurgard in respect to non-Private Customers in relation to the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services) is hereby expressly excluded.

The non-Private Customer acknowledges that the non-Private Customer's use of the Mobile App and the Mobile App Services is at its own risk.

Article 3. Term of the Storage Agreement

- 3.1 Unless otherwise agreed under the special conditions (and subject to Private Customer's right of withdrawal set out at Article 4.5), a Storage Agreement is concluded for an initial minimum period of 1 month. After this initial minimum one (1) month period, the contract will continue for an indefinite period and can be cancelled any time in writing by ordinary letter or e-mail by either party at will, by giving a minimum written notice of 15 days.
- 3.2 Customer acknowledges that any Storage Agreement entered into with Shurgard will not come into force until: (i) the Customer identifies himself/herself either online or at Shurgard's premises no later than on the move-in date to be defined in the Storage Agreement; and (ii) the identification process yields a positive outcome. If Customer fails to comply with these conditions, the Storage Agreement will not come into force and Shurgard shall refund the full amount paid by the Customer in that connection.

Article 4. Payment of storage charges and fees

4.1 Storage charges and fees

All storage charges and fees will be invoiced by Shurgard monthly together with any VAT payable (where applicable).

Upon conclusion of the Storage Agreement, Customer must:

- (i) pay the first invoice comprising all storage charges, service fees and costs related to the first month's use of the Storage Unit;
- (ii) purchase a unique secure cylinder lock (unless Customer already purchased a lock at Shurgard); and
- (iii) pay a one-off registration fee (only for new Customers).

Upon conclusion of the Storage Agreement, Shurgard can request Customer to also pay a deposit at least equivalent to one month's rental charge as a guarantee for correct compliance with the Storage Agreement. Shurgard may recover all unpaid charges, fees and costs resulting from non-compliance from the deposit sum without being obliged to do so. If Shurgard deems it necessary to draw upon the deposit, Customer must then immediately supplement the deposit to the sum for which it was originally provided.

No interest is paid on any deposit paid.

- 4.2 The storage charges will remain unchanged for the first six (6) months of the Storage Agreement. After that period, Shurgard reserves the right to periodically review the charges and fees. Reviewed charges and fees are applicable 30 days after written notice is provided by Shurgard ("Notice Period"). If a Private Customer does not agree with the reviewed charges and fees, they may terminate the Storage Agreement, without costs, during this Notice Period and the termination of the Storage Agreement will then be effective as from the end of that Notice Period.

4.3 Payment methods

a) Customer must pay upfront the storage charges and fees invoiced in relation to the first month's use of the Storage Unit by any of the following means:

- (i) the online payment methods made available by Shurgard through its dedicated web platform (e-Rental), as may be updated from time to time; or
- (ii) bank cards payment means that are available at the Site where the Storage Unit to be used by Customer is located.

b) Customer also undertakes to pay all subsequent invoices to be issued by Shurgard for the use of the Storage Unit no later than on the start date of the period to which they relate (anniversary billing principle) and on the recurring interval(s) to be specified to Customer. To this end, Customer agrees to grant Shurgard the right to directly collect any amounts to be invoiced as storage charges and fees using the same method of payment as the one provided for when the Storage Agreement was initially concluded.

c) Customer further acknowledges that Shurgard is entitled not to renew the Storage Agreement at the end of the month, should Customer decide to cancel the right granted to Shurgard to directly collect invoiced storage charges and fees via their preferred recurring method of payment.

d) Shurgard is in no way responsible for the technical processing of the payment itself nor for ensuring the actual execution of the payment. The payment of storage charges and fees is operated by and via the secured interface platform of a duly authorized third-party company (the "Payment Processor"). The Payment Processor remains solely responsible for and guarantees the certification of the interface platform as well as the security of the data pertaining to the payment transactions made between Customer and Shurgard and which are used, processed or stored in the name and on behalf of Shurgard.

e) Customer must personally bear the costs applied by their financial institution for transferring the amount of the storage charges and fees to Shurgard.

4.4 Customer rights in case of cancellation and withdrawal

Subject to Article 4.5, Customer acknowledges and agrees that in the event of a modification or cancellation of the Storage Agreement prior to move-in date, Customer will owe Shurgard an amount equal to 15 days of the invoiced storage charges and fees. The remainder of the storage charges and fees initially paid upon the conclusion of the Storage Agreement shall be refunded by Shurgard as soon as possible. However, any such refund will never happen by means of cash.

- 4.5 Article 4.4 does not apply to the extent that it conflicts with Private Customers' right of withdrawal, as set out in this Article 4.5. Where Private Customer enters into this Agreement online or over the phone, Private Customer has the right to withdraw from the Agreement within fourteen (14) days from the day of the conclusion of the Agreement without giving any reason and without incurring the costs set out in Article 4.4. To exercise the right of withdrawal, Private Customer must inform Shurgard (i.e. Shurgard UK Limited, Ground Floor Egerton House, Baker Street, Weybridge, Surrey, KT138AL (we prefer via post or by email at info@shurgard.co.uk)) of its decision to withdraw from the Agreement. Private Consumer can use the attached model withdrawal form (Annex I) or can communicate its decision by any other clear unequivocal statement. Shurgard will communicate to Private Customer an acknowledgement of receipt of such a withdrawal on a durable medium (e.g. by e-mail) without delay. To meet the withdrawal deadline, it is sufficient for Private Customer to send its communication concerning its exercise of the right of withdrawal before the withdrawal period has expired. If Private Customer withdraws from the Agreement, Shurgard shall reimburse to Private Customer all payments received from Private Customer, without undue delay and in any event within 14 days of withdrawal. If Private Customer requested to begin the performance of storage services during the withdrawal period, Private Customer shall pay Shurgard an amount which is in proportion to what has been provided until Private Customer has communicated to Shurgard its withdrawal from the Agreement, in comparison with the full coverage of the Agreement.

4.6 Invoicing

Shurgard may, at its own discretion, proceed with the paper or electronic invoicing of the monthly storage charges and fees (using the email address specified by the Customer in case of electronic invoicing). If Customer insists on getting paper invoices through the Post, Shurgard will charge a monthly fee for this service provided.

In addition, Customer accepts e-mail as a proper and sufficient method of communication between the Customer and Shurgard, for all purposes.

4.7 Late payment

If the payment of the monthly storage charge and fees is not received in full on the due date, Shurgard may deny Customer access to the Storage Unit until such time that the total outstanding balance is settled. Shurgard may also charge an administrative fee of 20 GBP after the 1st reminder notice and an administrative fee of 50 GBP after each subsequent reminder notice.

- 4.8 If any storage charge or fee due under this Agreement is not paid within 30 days of the due date Shurgard will be entitled to the following additional rights:

- (a) to break the existing lock on the Storage Unit and install a new one,
- (b) to remove the Goods from the Storage Unit to such alternative storage facilities as Shurgard may decide without incurring any liability for loss or damage arising by virtue of such removal,
- (c) to charge the Customer the full costs of removal of the Goods from the Storage Unit and storage costs elsewhere together with any repeated cost thereof should Shurgard require that the Goods be moved at any time thereafter,
- (d) to terminate the Customer's right to use a Storage Unit and to charge in the meantime a monthly occupancy fee for an amount equal to the monthly storage charge and to treat the Goods as abandoned.

- 4.9 If any storage charge or fee due under this Agreement is not paid within 90 days of the due date Shurgard will furthermore be entitled to sell, destroy or otherwise dispose of such Goods. The proceeds of any sale in accordance with clause 4.8 may be retained by Shurgard and applied to discharge any expenses incurred by Shurgard in exercising Shurgard's rights under this clause and any further sums owing to Shurgard under this Agreement. The balance of the proceeds will then be refunded to the Customer (or to a relevant insolvency practitioner in the case of the insolvency of the Customer); to the extent that the Customer cannot be located or fails to collect the balance of the proceeds such proceeds will be held on behalf of the Customer by Shurgard. Nothing in this clause shall prejudice Shurgard's entitlement to payment of storage charges or any other sums due to Shurgard hereunder whether or not Shurgard has chosen to exercise any or all of its rights as set out above.

- 4.10 Customer agrees that all the Goods in the Storage Unit shall be security for Shurgard's entitlement to payment of the storage charges, fee's and any other sums due to Shurgard, to the effect that access to the Goods in the Storage Unit may be denied until such time as full payment is obtained. Customer also accepts that this security may lead to a loss of the ownership of the Goods in the Storage Unit.

- 4.11 The Mobile App allows the Customer to manage the payment of invoices issued by Shurgard. Customer can pay the invoices using the payment methods that are made available through the Mobile App.

- 4.12 Customer may activate the "autopay" option via the Service Provider (as defined below) in order to allow direct debit payment for all invoices issued by Shurgard.

- 4.13 Shurgard is in no way responsible for the technical processing of the payment itself nor for ensuring the actual execution of the payment. The payment services are operated by and via the interface of an external third-party service provider (the "Service Provider"), which is solely responsible for and guarantees the certification of the platform and the security of the data relating to the means of payment proposed by the Customer, and which the Service Provider uses, processes or stores in the name and on behalf of Shurgard.

The Customer is liable at all times with respect to Shurgard for any damage Shurgard could suffer as a result of these controls and inspections.

8.7 Customer shall be liable for and fully compensate Shurgard for all costs, claims, liabilities, damages or expenses which Shurgard suffers or incurs in connection with the use by the Customer of the Storage Unit or the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services) including without limit any claims made by any third party or authority in connection with the misuse of a Storage Unit or the Mobile App (including the Mobile App Services) by the Customer.

8.8 The Customer must notify Shurgard immediately on becoming aware of any theft of, or damage to, the Goods. Failure to do so will limit or remove the Customer's ability to make a request for compensation from Shurgard.

8.9 Shurgard is not liable for indirect (or consequential) losses of the Customer including lost bargain, lost profit, lost opportunity, loss of anticipated savings or lost reputation or for any damage as a result of the activities of other Customers or of hindrances in the use of the Storage Unit caused by third parties, except that Shurgard may, under the SHURProtect option provide compensation for indirect losses up to a maximum of 20% of the SHURProtect Maximum.

8.10 Nothing in this agreement shall limit or exclude Shurgard's liability for death or personal injury arising as a result of Shurgard's negligence.

8.11 The Customer agrees that given:

(a) the availability of third-party insurance to protect the value of the Goods and the availability of the SHURProtect solution from Shurgard,

(b) the fact that Shurgard has taken no steps to verify the Customer's usage of the Storage Unit or to check or catalogue the Goods,

(c) the fact that Shurgard has no means of evaluating the Customer's risk, and

(d) the potentially large difference between the charges and fees paid by Customer to Shurgard and the damage which the Customer may suffer, it is the Customers responsibility to ensure that the Goods are adequately protected in accordance with Article 8.3 above.

- 8.12 In order to make a request for compensation of damages or losses from Shurgard pursuant to this Article 8 the Customer will need to provide evidence of the loss that they have suffered, including:
- a) Evidence that the Goods were stored in the Customer's Storage Unit; and
 - b) Evidence of the reduction in value of the Goods, resulting from Shurgard's failure to provide the service (including evidence of the original value of the Goods and evidence of the damage, theft, etc).
- 8.13 In case of damage or loss, the Customer is entitled to a compensation of the cost of replacement, repair or the fair value of the goods, whichever is lower and without exceeding the SHURProtect Maximum chosen by the Customer. The compensation will be reduced proportionally in case the fair value of the goods exceeds the SHURProtect Maximum chosen by the Customer (for example, if the SHURProtect Maximum chosen by the Customer represents 70% of the actual fair value of Customer's goods (unknown to Shurgard), Customer will only be entitled to maximum 70% of the SHURProtect Maximum).
- Irrespective of the SHURProtect Maximum chosen by the Customer, the Customer shall never be entitled to a Compensation in excess of 700 GBP for watches, jewellery, precious stones and stamps of all kinds per unit; 35 GBP per bottle of wine or spirits; also in case of loss of, destruction of or damage to, elements that form a pair or a part of a whole, Customer will only be able to request for compensation for the actual parts which are lost or damaged.

Article 9. Third party insurance / SHURProtect

- 9.1 The Customer agrees and acknowledges that Shurgard is unable to provide, arrange or advise on insurance for the Goods in the Storage Unit.
- 9.2 However, the Customer may obtain a third party contents insurance for the Goods in the Storage Unit. It is the Customer's responsibility to ensure that this insurance is sufficient to cover both the full value of the Goods and all risks that might impact the Goods. Failure to do so will mean that in the event of loss of the Goods due to any cause (including gross negligence of Shurgard) the loss shall be for the risk and account of the Customer.
- 9.3 Where the Customer obtains third party contents insurance, the Customer agrees to do so with a reputable insurance company. Such insurance must include a clause for the benefit of Shurgard under which all rights of recourse towards Shurgard, Shurgard's insurers and co-contractors are waived by the insurer. Shurgard may require the Customer to provide a certificate of evidence of his/her third-party insurance at the time of concluding the Agreement. Or, as long as such certificate has not been delivered, Shurgard may, at its discretion, require the Customer to opt for the SHURProtect solution in accordance with Article 8.
- 9.4 Customer will always hold Shurgard, Shurgard's insurers and co-contractors harmless and indemnified from any claims by the Customer's insurers for recourse against Shurgard.

Article 10. Maintenance and repairs

- 10.1 Shurgard may proceed at all times onto or into the Storage Unit to carry out (have carried out) activities and investigations for the purposes of maintenance, repair, redevelopment, repartitioning and renewal, including the installation of extra facilities.
- 10.2 Renovation and/or maintenance activities on the Storage Unit by Shurgard do not constitute any default by Shurgard, even if such renovation and/or the maintenance activities (temporarily) prevent or limit the use of the Storage Unit or entail access to the Shurgard Unit by Shurgard. The Customer must permit Shurgard the opportunity to carry out maintenance activities and the renovation on the Storage Unit and the Customer shall not be entitled to a reduced rental cost, the reduction of other payment obligations, the whole or partial dissolution of the agreement and/or any entitlement to damages as a result of such maintenance activities or renovation unless carried out negligently by Shurgard or in breach of this Agreement.
- 10.3 Customer will take all necessary measures to prevent causing damage to the Storage Unit and to the property of third parties. In the event of damage to any third party or Shurgard property, Shurgard is at all times entitled to conduct repairs at the expense of Customer. Customer agrees to the payment of any invoices for such repairs within seven (7) days of Shurgard sending such invoice.
- 10.4 In the event that Shurgard needs access to the Storage Unit for the purposes stated above, which requires access or vacation of a Storage Unit, Shurgard will, if time and the urgency permits, inform the Customer hereof and will request the Customer to move the Goods to another Storage Unit within a reasonable period of time. Failure to do so entitles Shurgard to access the Storage Unit and move the Goods in the Storage Unit by itself to another Storage Unit with due care but at the risk of the Customer.

Article 11. Shurgard and third party access

- 11.1 In the event of an emergency, Shurgard and its employees are entitled to enter the Storage Unit (without permission and warning to the Customer), if necessary by means of forced entry. The emergencies include any maintenance, repairs and renewal and any sudden occurrence of any situation necessitating urgent entry.
- 11.2 Furthermore, in the event that any local, national, regulatory or criminal justice body or authority requires access to any Storage Unit, Shurgard shall be entitled to grant itself and these authorities, at any moment, access to the Storage Unit.

- 11.3 Shurgard and its employees also have the right to remove the locks, enter the Storage Unit without permission and deny Customer access to the Storage Unit in the event that the Customer fails to comply with the terms of this Agreement or if Shurgard suspects that the Customer is not complying herewith. In particular, Shurgard has the right to deny Customer access to the Storage Unit and enter the Storage Unit in the event of late or non-payment of charges and fees due.
- 11.4 After entering the Storage Unit in accordance with this article 11, Shurgard has the right (but not an obligation) to make an inventory of the Goods.
- 11.5 Shurgard is under no obligation to verify the access rights of any person to a Storage Unit, including those of any local, national, regulatory or criminal justice body or authority. Shurgard accepts no liability for providing access to the Storage Unit to third parties.
